

THE BEE HIVE

When Webster said the definition of a Blanket is "a covering" he proved his foresight for he knew there would be hundreds of manufacturers making blankets that are only light coverings. If Webster had been sure that every merchant would have demanded from the manufacturer the kind of Blanket WE sell he would have given a different meaning. But there is the "if." Anyway, at the rate we have been selling blankets the past week, seems as if everybody knew that we have the only stock of Blankets in town at the RIGHT prices and the prices are right at the very first look. If we Blanket you by night, let us Blanket you by day. We have the largest CLOAK Department in the city. We can please your taste and satisfy your pocketbook.

LADIES'	CLOAKS FROM $3 98 to $35 00
MISSSES'	CLOAKS FROM 3 98 to 15 00
CHILDREN'S	CLOAKS FROM 1 98 to 7 00
INFANTS'	CLOAKS FROM 1 25 to 5 00

When you buy a Cloak you want to be sure you are getting the right style—you want to be sure you are pleased—you want to be sure others are pleased. That's why you should come to the BEE HIVE. Our Cloaks are never sold until you are satisfied.

UNDERWEAR—Ask the first ten people you meet where they buy their Underwear. Nine and maybe ten will tell you the BEE HIVE. Don't ask them why; you know as well as they do. We have every kind you can think of. We can keep your temperature from milk warm to a boiling point, and we don't keep our Underwear on a heater to make you think it's warm, either.

PROP'S OF BEE HIVE.

DIED MONDAY NIGHT.

Mrs. Henry Lloyd, a Sister of Mr. J. B. Burgess, Passed Away at Kenilworth, Illinois.

Mr. J. B. Burgess, of West Second street, received a telegram Tuesday, bringing the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs. Maria Lloyd, wife of Mr. Henry Lloyd, at her home in Kenilworth, a suburb of Chicago. She had been in failing health for some time, the end coming Monday night at 11:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Lloyd was born at Mayslick sixty-one years ago this month. After her marriage to Mr. Lloyd they lived for a number of years in Maysville where he was engaged in business. Later they moved to Covington. The last four or five years they had lived at Kenilworth with one of their daughters. Mrs. Lloyd is survived by her husband and two daughters, both of whom are married. The remains will be buried at Chicago.

Keep a List of the Idlers and Loafers.

[Cynthiana Democrat.] Monday morning Foster Clary, L. and N. agent, had six car loads of coal in the yards which the company was anxious to unload at once, as the cars were needed. He asked at least twenty negroes, who were idling about the streets, to go to work, but they refused. They prefer to wait till winter sets in and draw rations from the county or city. It would be a good idea for names of parties who refuse work to be taken and kept by the Mayor and County Judge for reference when calls for aid are made later on.

Mrs. Pearl R. Miller is reported seriously ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. William E. Austin, in Sixth ward.

Mr. James Breeze is ill with an attack of rheumatism.

A child of Mrs. Carney of East Second street is ill with scarlet fever.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c. at J. Jas. Wood & Son's.

The performance given at the opera house last night was witnessed by a large audience. Not a person in the audience left dissatisfied. It is a clean, clever show, anything but suggestive of vulgarity. Twenty pretty women, beautiful and costly costumes, specialties, choruses, songs, dances and other features that always draw. They can return to Nebraska City next season with the assurance that they will be greeted with a full house.—Nebraska City (Nebr.) Daily Press.

This company will be the attraction at the opera house next Friday night.

SAVES LIFE

Willard, Ill., August 1, 1900. I was in bad health this spring and could not sit up in bed for four weeks. When I was confined my child died. When I began to sit up I felt so weak and had such terrible pains in my back and hips. I had kidney trouble and falling of the womb. I also had hysterical spells. I was in a bad condition when I received your "Ladies' Birthday Almanac" and read the advertisement of Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught. Since April 20th, I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui and three packages of Thedford's Black-Draught. I feel like a new person now. I can do all my work and can walk out to see any of my neighbors. I believe I would have been in the grave had it not been for Wine of Cardui. IT SAVED MY LIFE. Mrs. ALICE DAVIS.

It is well that women are more patient than men. Few men could bear the bitter pangs, the agony and distress that women endure. Thousands of women have come to look upon suffering as a duty of their sex. But there are many instances of this heroic fortitude which now renders unnecessary. Women need no longer suffer for modesty's sake. Wine of Cardui brings relief to modest women in the privacy of their homes. Many of the best homes in this city are never without this great medicine. It cures whites and falling of the womb and completely eradicates these dragging periodical pains. Mrs. Davis' cure shows you conclusively what you may expect if you follow her example and take Wine of Cardui. Thedford's Black-Draught aids Wine of Cardui by regulating the stomach and bowels. When you ask your druggist for these medicines, be sure you get them. It was Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught that saved Mrs. Davis' life. Never take a substitute.
